

Angenvoort Asia Pacific designed “Playland at EDITION”

Angenvoort Asia Pacific Limited has been appointed by The Ian Schrager Company to develop the concept design for multi-generational family facilities for the new 5 Star “The Sanya EDITION” Hotel in Sanya, Hainan Island, China. The Sanya EDITION Hotel and its Playland opened before Chinese New Year 2017.

The Ian Schrager Company, New York, asked to create a program driven, vibrant family and children experience for “EDITION”, part of Marriott International. Built by Jinghope Real Estate Sanya, the new Resort will have a Kids’ Entertainment Zone, an Interactive Zone, a Kids’ Club, a Minigolf Area and many more features to attract families and children at the same time and to create unique memorable experiences. The Interactive Zone for example offers a Playoke Dance and Game Attraction as well as innovative Reactable for interactive Music experiences.

The brand reflects the changing lifestyles of families and children. Their expectations towards innovative multi-generational experiences in 5 Star Resorts. The Vision is to re-think the children facilities and kids’ clubs, to integrate the entire family in an inclusive design experience and innovative family games.

Angenvoort Asia Pacific Limited is a family attractions & kids’ club design and development company. Turning our expertise from the leading projects of the attractions and entertainment industry into unique multi-generational family experiences for resorts, parks and malls.
